KERRY OBTAINED A ZERO VERDICT IN A CASE WHERE PLAINTIFF SOUGHT IN EXCESS OF $21,000,000.00!

Kenneth W. Williams v. Romeo Brasov and Tetre Brasov

The Brasov's Insurance Company hired Kerry J. Anderson, Esquire, of Sponsler, Bennett, Jacobs & Adams, P.A., to defend a claim brought against the Brasovs by Plaintiff Williams. Plaintiff alleged multiple injuries from a head-on collision including a broken neck, spinal cord damage, broken right radius, dislocated shoulder, two brain contusions, memory loss, bruised lungs, bruised intestines, and a cervical disk herniation. Plaintiff had an anterior cervical discectomy with fusion, repair of a cervical fracture, as well as surgery due to a fracture of the right radius. Past medical expenses were in excess of $1,000,000.00 and the Plaintiff asked the jury for damages of $21,883,506.30 in a five day trial.

Verdict:

For the defendants!

Zero damages awarded.
